Montréal Communiqué

Friday, November 27, 1970
For release at will

Ross Bannerman, 43, has been appointed General Secretary of the Montreal YMCA, one of the top Y staff posts in Canada.

His predecessor, Rix G. Rogers, will serve as Assistant to the President in Montreal until April 1st, 1971, when he takes over as General Secretary of the National Council of Canadian YMCAs.

In his new position, effective December 1st, Bannerman will be responsible for implementing policy and planning a wide range of programs for the Y in Greater Montreal.

Operating with an annual budget of over $3,000,000, he will oversee city-wide activities which involve over 55,000 people and, including part-time help, an island-spanning staff of over 800.
